

ARTS ROLLA!

BRINGING THE ARTS AND COMMUNITIES TOGETHER SINCE 1985

Dan Woodward Retrospective Scheduled for January 2022

Arts Rolla is pleased to present the work of Missouri artist, Dan Woodward during the month of January. Dan is a professional artist, composer, writer, and educator with a passion for the arts.

Dan's formal training was at California State University, Los Angeles. However, Dan is a lifelong learner, and he continued his studies with realist painter, Frederick Sillers a well know artist in Washington D.C. and he has also studied etching with master printmaker, Robert Freeman of San Marcos, California. The work of Rockwell Kent, Thomas Hart Benton, Winslow Homer and George Inness have also influenced Dan's art.

Dan Woodward's art has been displayed throughout the United States and recently his "Impressions of the Civil War in the West" exhibit was featured at the Lutheran Heritage Center & Museum in Altenburg, Missouri.

Arts Rolla will showcase Dan Woodward's art during the month of January in the Dan Woodward Retrospective. The exhibit will be available for the public to enjoy at The Centre – Rolla's Health & Recreation Complex located at 1200 Holloway Street, Rolla, MO throughout the month of January.

The public is invited to attend the First Friday Opening Reception on January 7 between the hours of 5 pm and 7 pm to enjoy the exhibit, meet the artist and to hear Dan Woodward's lecture.

This exhibit has been funded in part by the Arts and Education Council.

About the Arts and Education Council

THE CITY OF ROLLA PRESENTS ART ALONG THE ACORN TRAIL ON SEPTEMBER 17, 2022

Marie Crowley, Recreation Supervisor for Rolla Parks and Recreation has approached Arts Rolla about an art walk along the Acorn Trail. Our community has an abundance of poets, authors, musicians, dancers, photographers and visual artists. We are hopeful that you will want to be a part of this opportunity.

The city has selected Saturday, September 17 and designated the area near Green Acres to be the location for the art walk. There will be room for 40 booth spaces and there will be no charge to participate.

If you would like to have a space to exhibit your art, exhibit your photography, share your original poetry, sell, and display your books, teach a skill related to the arts, or perform, please contact Marie Crowley at (573) 426-6919.

Infuze Credit Union Making a Positive Difference in Our Community

Arts Rolla was pleasantly surprised when Sarah Jemes and Lisa Lewis contacted Arts Rolla with the news that the employees of Infuze Credit Union wanted to make a charitable contribution to Arts Rolla.

“We greatly appreciate the employees of Infuze Credit Union and are thankful for their investment in the arts”, said Loretta Peterman, President of Arts Rolla. “The employees selected Arts Rolla to receive the money that Infuze had raised. We are thankful that they are a part of our community.”

Pictured are: Lynn Slawson, Arts Rolla Board of Directors; Lisa Lewis, of Infuze Credit Union; Sarah Jemes, of Infuze Credit Union; Loretta Peterman, President Arts Rolla. and Reba Fryer Administrative Assistant for Arts Rolla.

Arts Rolla Receives Generous Support with a Technology Grant

Arts Rolla was thrilled when Buzz Harvey, president of the Rolla Rotary Breakfast Club attended our Annual Meeting to present Arts Rolla with a check to assist with the costs of a new computer and a new printer.

“We are very appreciative of the contribution and will use the funding to purchase a new laptop and printer. These resources are critical to our organization”, said Loretta Peterman, president. “We are very fortunate to have so many wonderful people and organizations in our community who are eager to make a positive difference.”

Thank you, Brewer Science!

When Arts Rolla was founded in 1985, Brewer Science stepped forward to encourage the art community with a contribution. Thirty-six years later Brewer Science is still investing in creativity and supports the arts.

“Because of Brewer Science’s investment Arts Rolla has been able to bring the community together through the arts. We are able to offer new and innovative programs which enable our community to communicate and share in new ways”, said Loretta Peterman, president of Arts Rolla. “We are very thankful that Brewer Science is a part of our community and value their contribution to creativity.”

Arts Rolla Welcomes New Board Member

Arts Rolla is pleased to announce the addition of Brenda Linkeman to the board of directors. Brenda Linkeman has a bachelor’s degree in Fine Arts, with a concentration in graphics, and a Master’s Degree in Social Work, both from the University of Texas in Arlington. Professionally, Brenda has worked with children for over thirty-five years. As a teenager she had summer jobs in art galleries in the Washington DC area. While completing her art degree, Brenda worked in the university photo lab, the art history slide library, in the UTA Art Gallery, as well as having worked as a commercial artist and business form designer in Grand Prairie, Texas. She began teaching art in Grand Prairie at the Golden Palette Art Studio, and continued teaching art, primarily to children, at her Rolla art studio, “Expressions!” She has competed in numerous art shows, winning a variety of awards through the years. Her collection of original bird paintings have been on exhibit twice at the “Audubon Center at Riverlands” in West Alton, Missouri.

Brenda has served as secretary of the Canyon County Respite Committee, the Rolla Kennel Club, the Rolla Volkssport Club, the Rolla Public Library board, and also as the treasurer of the UTA Student Art Association, Vice Chair of the UTA Art History Club, appointed member of the UTA Liberal Arts Constituency Council, Vice Chair of the Tarant County Crime Victim’s Coalition and Chair of the Phelps County Health Department Ethics Committee. While serving on the Rolla Library Board, she was the project design coordinator for the library pocket park.

Brenda began writing poetry as a sophomore in high school while living in Virginia. She self-published a book, “Pasque Flowers Along the Ipswich Trail,” and recently had three poems published in the Gasconade Review. Her current artistic focus is writing, and creating collages. She is a strong supporter of the arts, and looks forward to serving on the Arts Rolla Board.
